

ORPEA POSTPONES THE PUBLICATION OF ITS ANNUAL ACCOUNTS AND ANNOUNCES THE AVAILABILITY OF THE PRELIMINARY FINDINGS OF THE EXTERNAL EVALUATION MISSION

Puteaux, 26 April 2022 [8:30 AM CEST]

Due to the exceptional circumstances currently faced by the Company, which have required the support of the teams to the investigations of the public authorities, to the preparation of the Senate hearing as well as to the mission carried out by the independent firms, ORPEA has decided to postpone the publication of its annual accounts being audited to Friday 13 May 2022.

The Company will ask the Chairman of the Commercial Court for an extension of the deadline for holding its annual general meeting at the end of July 2022.

The Company will also announce its revenue for the first quarter of 2022 on Friday 13 May 2022.

In line with the Company's commitment, the preliminary findings can be found in their entirety in the progress report by Grant Thornton and Alvarez & Marsal, available at: <https://www.orpea-group.com/actualites>

With respect to shareholders and investors, the company will continue to favor public communication over any other form of communication.
